The book cover for 'Newspaper Design' features a large, stylized illustration of a person's face in profile, looking towards the right. The face is composed of various graphic elements: the eyes are large and colorful (red, yellow, and grey), the nose is a small black shape, and the mouth is a white rectangle. The background of the cover is white, and the title 'NEWSPAPER Design' is prominently displayed in large, bold, black and red letters at the top. Below the title, the subtitle 'Editorial Design from the World's Best Newsrooms' and the curator's name 'Curated by JAVIER ERREA' are written in a smaller, black font. The bottom half of the cover shows a grid-based newspaper layout with sections for 'Today' and 'Culture'. The 'Today' section includes a large image of a person's face and several smaller images and text boxes. The 'Culture' section also features a large image and a grid of smaller images. At the bottom left, there is a list of reporting credits for various news organizations, and at the bottom right, the word 'gestalten' is printed in a bold, black font.
