Synopsis book

Three different kids. One mission in common:

ESCAPE. Josef is a Jewish boy in 1930s Nazi Germany. With the threat of concentration camps looming, he and his family board a ship bound for the other side of the world. Isabel is a Cuban girl in 1994. With riots and unrest plaguing her country, she and her family set out on a raft, hoping to find safety and freedom in America. Mahmoud is a Syrian boy in 2015. With his homeland torn apart by violence and destruction, he and his family begin a long trek toward Europe. All three young people will go on harrowing journeys in search of refuge. All will face unimaginable dangers from drownings to bombings to betrayals. But for each of them, there is always the hope of tomorrow. And although Josef, Isabel, and Mahmoud are separated by continents and decades, surprising connections will tie their stories together in the end.

A young boy with dark hair, wearing a grey t-shirt, is seen from behind, sitting in a small wooden boat. He is looking out over a dark, choppy sea under a dramatic, cloudy sky. A bright light, possibly the sun or moon, is breaking through the clouds in the distance, creating a strong backlight effect. The boat is red and has some ropes visible. The overall mood is one of hope and resilience amidst adversity.
