Synopsis book

Illuminating the Best in Watercolor Painting!"If tonal value is the structure--the bones and muscle--of the painting, the illusion of light gives a painting its soul.... There would be no art, no life, without light." -Rachel Wolf (p5) Like moths to a flame, watercolor artists are forever fascinated, sometimes obsessed, and often frustrated by their quest to capture the elusive qualities of light. Splash 19 showcases 125+ shining successes, fresh out of the studios of today's top artists. These artists revel in the possibilities of light, reflection, refraction, and shadows. Their paintings celebrate the magic that happens when light dances across the landscape, bounces around a still life, or pierces a rainy city night. From the riot of reflections on water, to a cat basking in the sun, to the inner glow of innocence in a child's expression...light brings this work to life. Alongside each painting, commentary from the artist offers firsthand insight into how they use light to create

A watercolor illustration of a park scene. In the foreground, a wide, light-colored stone staircase leads up towards the left. To the right of the stairs is a large, curved, light-colored stone wall or fountain structure. The background is filled with lush green trees and foliage. The overall style is soft and painterly, with visible watercolor textures and a warm, golden light filtering through the scene.
