Synopsis book

The sequel to the #1 New York Times Bestseller! It's now been two years since Ben and Firedrake defeated Nettlebrand and rescued the silver dragons. Both boy and dragon have finally found homes, but they must live hundreds of miles apart and can only see each other every once in a while. During one such visit, news reaches Ben, the Greenblooms, and their friends that the last Pegasus in the world has been discovered. The legendary horse has three unhatched eggs with him, but the only way they'll ever hatch -- and continue the survival of this incredible magical species -- is to place them under a griffin's feather. But griffins are the most dangerous creatures in the world, and their mortal enemies are dragons... Ben has vowed not to tell Firedrake about his quest, to protect him. But as he and the Greenbloom team set off for a remote island where the terrible griffins are rumored to live, he may just need the help of his best friend and dragon...

DRAGON RIDER

The book cover features a vibrant sunset scene. A large, purple dragon with a rider is the central focus, flying towards the left. The rider is a young man in a dark tunic, holding a glowing sword. The dragon's wings are spread wide, and its tail is long and curved. In the background, a large, bright sun or moon is setting, casting a warm glow over the scene. Several other dragons are visible in the distance, flying against the orange and yellow sky. The overall mood is adventurous and epic.
